

Easter in Aylestone “Walk of Witness”

Unlike other years, our walk of witness in Aylestone was in brilliant sunshine. Meeting up at 10am and following a short service led by Rev Rowena Bass, fifty plus of us set off from St Andrew's parish Church following a cross and handing out hot cross buns to passers-by on our way.

We headed to St Edwards Catholic Church on the Aylestone Road where we were warmly welcomed. We all crowded in and like St Andrews Church, we had a short service and a time of reflection, prayers and sang an Easter hymn.

On to Aylestone Baptist Church where Stan Mackley led a short service and our choir sang two beautiful Easter songs.

Our walk of witness finished, we shared the rest of the morning in fellowship with one another from the different churches together with refreshments and, of course, hot cross buns.

Our thanks go to the Spirit of Aylestone who organises the walk of witness year after year. To the ABC Choir and for their wonderful singing and for the many people who turned up and joined us on our witness through Aylestone.
